

ROBERTS IS IN JOHANNESBURG.

ARMORED TRAIN SHROUDED IN FOLIAGE SO AS NOT TO BE SEEN BY THE ENEMY.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LONDON, May 30.—As Lord Roberts had heretofore always fulfilled his predictions, it is taken for granted here that the British marched into Johannesburg at noon today. Indeed, reports are current that telegrams have already been received announcing the fact, and the serious part of the campaign from the military point of view is regarded as over. Any prolonged defense of Pretoria is considered highly improbable, and many military men anticipate that General French will capture the Transvaal capital within a day or two with a sudden and unexpected movement.

Public interest centers largely in President Kruger, in his capture or escape. The occupation of Pretoria would be largely robbed of its value in the estimation of the British if Oom Paul were still at large and able to keep alive the dying embers of war.

A Pretoria dispatch says the situation at Johannesburg shows, as reported by Lord Roberts, that order is maintained in the gold reef city.

The report that the British were driven back evidently refers to the prolonged fight of General French westward of Johannesburg. But apparently the British were not seriously checked, as Lord Roberts does not mention it in his dispatch twenty-four hours later.

A dispatch from Mafeking dated Friday, May 26th, reports that General Snyman, the Boer commander, has left his force and arrived at his farm with a shrapnel bullet in his foot.

The Boer laager at Rooigrass, it is added, has retired further into the Transvaal, and Mafeking is rapidly resuming its normal state. Major-General Baden-Powell, on the Queen's birthday, gave a dinner to the officers of the relief columns. During the course of a speech, proposing the Queen's health, the defender of Mafeking remarked that he was so elated by the recent occurrences that he felt he could "drink the health of Paul Kruger himself, coupled with that of Cecil Rhodes," adding "because Kruger has been the cause of the present great outburst of imperial feeling, and Rhodes was the red rag to the bull which drew him on."

BULLER'S OPERATIONS.

LONDON, May 30.—The following dispatch has been received at the War Office from General Buller: "NEWCASTLE, May 30.—The enemy, having formed a laager east of the town at Dornbos, pressed my right rear annoyingly. On May 27th I directed a force under Lyleburn, by Schagadrit, on Dornbos. These movements have caused the enemy at Dornbos to retire north. "Hildyard is at Utrecht, and the town has surrendered. Clerly is bombarding Liding's Nek. The enemy are much disheartened, and were they not in such very strong positions I doubt if they would show fight. The railway was opened to Newcastle on May 28th."

BOERS CLAIM VICTORY.

PRETORIA, May 29.—An official war bulletin just issued is as follows: "On Sunday a fight occurred close to Vanwyksrust in Gatsrand. The Federals fought well and the British troops seemed tired but at dark the Federals were forced to retire in the direction of Vanwyksrust, on account of the overwhelming force of British troops. "The British attacked Witwatersrand yesterday and were in contact with the Federals at Gatsrand, but they were beaten back with good results by the Federals under Commandant Louis Botha. "The Federals were heavily bombarded all day long, but kept their positions. The British loss is reported to be considerable. "The British are near Utrecht and they are also marching on Liding's Nek." "A dispatch sent from Johannesburg last night describes the town as intensely excited throughout the day over reports that the British were approaching, but says the excitement subsided in the evening, owing to rumors that the British had been driven back. There are large numbers of burghers at Johannesburg, but remarkable order prevails there.

FREE STATE ANNEXED.

BLOEMFONTEIN, Monday, May 28.—Amid salutes and cheers and the singing of "God Save the Queen" the military Governor, General Freytmann, at noon formally proclaimed the annexation of the Free State under the designation of the Orange River Colony. The ceremony was somewhat imposing. An immense concourse had gathered and the town was gay with hunting. The balconies and windows surrounding the square were crowded with ladies, among them Lady Roberts, and the Misses Roberts, the Countess of Arliss and Lady Henry Bentwick and Lady Seurington. The troops were drawn up under command of General Knox and entertained the spectators. The Governor, accompanied by General Kelly-Kenny and their staffs escorted by the Welsh yeomanry, was greeted with a general salute, while amid impressive silence and in a clear voice heard in every part of the square, General Freytmann read Lord Roberts' proclamation announcing the Orange Free State as conquered by her majesty's forces and annexed to the Queen's dominions, proclaiming that the State shall henceforth be known as the Orange River Colony. Lusty cheers greeted the concluding words of the proclamation and these were renewed with ever-increasing volume as Lord Acheson unfurled the royal standard and the bands struck up "God Save the Queen," all present joining in singing the national hymn. The ceremony concluded with cheers for the Queen, Lord Roberts and the army and a salute of 21 guns.

A YELLOW CANARD.

LONDON, May 30.—The officials of the British War Office deny in unqualified terms the statement, called to a New York newspaper that the War Office here had asked Lord Roberts if he believed he could lead 100,000 of his troops in England before October 1st. According to the British War Office, the New York story is "ridiculous nonsense."

On the heights where the heroes dwell, make room!

For another soul comes that way. Out of the valley of death and gloom, Where duty spoke, and her voice was doom.

The voice that he must obey. There cometh, there cometh—make kingly space!

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

PEKING, Tuesday, May 29.—From all parts of the surrounding country news is constantly arriving of fresh atrocities committed by the "Boxers." Three Christian families were massacred at Shan Lai Ying, sixty miles from Peking, Friday, May 25th. Only two escaped.

A representative of the Associated Press visited Pang Tai this morning and found the place occupied by a battalion of troops. The whole railroad station, workshops and locomotive sheds were gutted and much rolling stock was destroyed, including the Imperial Palace Car Company. The godowns (Chinese warehouses), full of valuable merchandise, were burned after having been looted by the rioters. The damage is estimated at half a million taels.

The neighboring villagers seem to have joined in the attack, showing that the movement is not confined to the "Boxers." Eight rioters who were captured were beheaded. Riding through the south gate of Peking, the correspondent found the road inside the walls lined with troops who greeted the traveler and his party with a fusillade of stones.

The whole country is much excited.

SHORT SESSION OF THE HOUSE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—A motion to strike out the enacting clause in the Chinese commission bill was lost, 105 to 130, and the bill was sent back to the calendar.

The 190 pension bills were passed and the House then, at 2:10 P. M., adjourned.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LONDON, May 30.—The racing of the Epsom summer meeting today, the race for the Derby stakes was won by the Prince of Wales' Diamond Jubilee.

The conditions of the race are as follows: The Derby stakes of 6,000 sovereigns, by subscription of fifty sovereigns each, half forfeit, or five sovereigns only if declared by the first Tuesday in January, 1889; for 3-year-olds, the nominator of the winner to receive 500 sovereigns, owner of the second 300 sovereigns and owner of the third 200 sovereigns out of the stake; distance, about one mile and a half. The entries closed July 19, 1890. There were 302 subscribers.

The following was the result in detail: The Prince of Wales b. c. Diamond Jubilee, by St. Simon, out of Perdita II (H. Jones), won. The Duke of Portland's b. c. Simon, by St. Simon, out of Ismay (A. Cannon), second; James R. Keene's Disguise II, by Domino, out of Bonnie Gal (Tod Sloan), third.

The scenes and incidents along the Epsom road on one Derby day differ little from another Derby day. But the introduction of Union Jacks and banners inscribed "Johannesburg" in joyful recognition of Lord Roberts' entry into the gold reef city was a feature of the sporting holiday today.

On the Down portraits of the Queen and the favorite Generals were marked and distinctive features of today's jollification. Although the weather was not promising, the exodus from London was hardly less remarkable than in previous years. The Epsom road was congested by every variety of vehicle, while the trains had difficulty in carrying the throngs.

A large number of Americans patronized the coaches. The Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of York, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, the Duke of Cambridge and Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein went to Epsom by special train.

Diamond Jubilee's time was 2:12. This equals Persimmon's time, which is the record for the Derby.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30.—The steamer Gaelic from Hongkong and Yokohama via Honolulu brings the following advices to the Associated Press from Honolulu, dated May 29:

Albert Francis Judd, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Hawaii, died at his residence, Nuuanu Valley, on the 29th. He had been ill for several months.

Albert Francis Judd was the son of Dr. and Mrs. Gerritt P. Judd, who came here under the auspices of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, on the ship Parthian, arriving at Honolulu March 30, 1828. He was born in Honolulu, January 7, 1838.

He graduated from Yale in 1858, both as a bachelor of arts and in the law school when he was 20 years of age.

Chief Justice Judd's political career began with his appointment as Attorney-General of the kingdom under Lunalilo in 1873. He became first Associate Justice February 1, 1877, and on the death of Chief Justice Harris, became Chief Justice, November 5, 1881.

The Democrats have taken the first steps for the organization of the party in the territory of Hawaii.

The gathering was one that filled the hall to its capacity, and numbered fully 500. Those who called the meeting, and felt themselves sponsors in some degree for its success, express themselves as thoroughly pleased and gratified with the outlook.

A report comes from Kona that in a riot among the Japanese employees of a plantation two men were killed and a number injured. The trouble arose over the refusal of a number of men to join in a strike for a holiday on the occasion of the wedding of the Crown Prince. The strikers went in a body to compel the workers to quit for the day, and the trouble arose, resulting as above stated. Officers have been sent to the scene of the trouble.

SPORTING NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Local Clubs Are in a Prosperous Condition—Baseball Notes.

Interest in sporting affairs is pretty well divided between club events and activity in the field. Most of the club members are indulging in some kind of outdoor sport, whether it be wheeling, baseball, swimming or cross country runs.

The Reliance Club is putting considerable attention to baseball, although its team has not met with signal success so far. Some changes will be made in the team soon with the expectation of raising the standard of its play.

The West Oakland Athletic Club is taking a great interest in cruising. A number of pleasant trips on the bay have been taken recently and more are scheduled for the future. A gentlemen's night is among the attractions scheduled early next month.

The Y. M. C. A. boys are taking a great deal of interest in bicycle runs and cross country runs. A number of events have been scheduled to take place soon. These will be held regularly during the summer months.

Baseball continues to be popular. The showing made by the local team, however, is not all that could be asked. The club has failed to win the position of a poor third in the league games.

There is practically nothing doing in golf. The game which was to have been played between teams from San Francisco and Oakland at San Rafael has been declared off for the present.

Y. M. C. A.

Today the Y. M. C. A. boys had a bare and hound chase. The start was made at 6 o'clock this morning from the Association building. The run was made on wheels, the distance being about ten miles. Walter Rose, L. M. Myers, George Martin and others acted as hares, about twenty-five of the boys engaged in the chase.

The committee in charge of the bicycle chase was Messrs. Rode, Duncan and McLean.

Last Thursday about thirty of the boys took a cross country tramp, winding up at the Piedmont baths. The party was led by Mr. Myers.

Since the return of Instructor Myers from Portland classes are being held on Saturdays and Sundays. Thursday evenings are devoted to the swimming classes.

There is considerable talk of having a camp for boys this summer. The camp is to be close to this city. Several of the Y. M. C. A. boys have expressed a desire to join such a party. If the camp is organized, the committee in charge of it will be in charge of it.

A moonlight wheel run is scheduled for June 12th. A large entry list is expected.

Several of the boys will leave June 12th for a summer outing at Camp Idlewood, Catalina Island.

Last Sunday Fred A. Hunt gave an interesting address at the men's meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Condition, Not a Theory.

Reliance Notes

Last night the Reliance Club gave its smoker, and an enjoyable evening was spent by the members and their friends. A fine program and plenty of clay pipes, tobacco, punch and sandwiches aided in the entertainment.

About the 15th of next month a gentleman's night will be given at the club. There will be all probability match Pete Reconni against Chas. Thurston at 145 pounds, and Ben Hart of Stockton against J. K. Lavelle at 125 pounds.

It is also looking for a good opponent for Ed Smith of the Reliance Club.

The Reliance baseball team will go to San Rafael next Sunday to play the team managed by Manager Hughes will make several changes in the team which will strengthen it a great deal.

The interest in the game never dies out, as is shown by the large crowds that gather in the alley every night to take part in the sport.

Next week A. W. Beck made a score of 60. B. E. Miller made the next highest score of 55. Both their names were placed on the roll of honor.

A meeting of the board of directors will be held tomorrow night. They have several membership applications to act upon beside a great deal of other business.

Manager Hughes is trying to get some new men for pitchers for the baseball team. It is likely that a couple of new men will be seen in the box. One of the most promising candidates is Richard Pless.

There will probably be two pitchers added to the team.

A match game between picked teams from the club will be played on June 1st and Humphreys will play the box for the opposing teams. The game will be for a dinner for both teams.

The club team and the Horsemen's meet today at Golden Gate Park. The line-up of the teams is as follows:

Reliance—Hammond, catcher; Fiege or Thorton, pitcher; Ward, first base; Dean, second base; Platt, third base; Bird, short stop; Lefevre, left field; Wyma, center field; Hanlin, right field.

Horsemen's—Hammond, catcher; Waterbury, pitcher; Mulvey, first base; Davis, second base; Denny, third base; Quigley, short stop; Spencer, left field; Fey, center field; Nolan, right field.

The committee in charge of the refreshments at the smoker last night was as follows: Henry May, Steve Brodie, Harry Mason and Fred Field.

The committee which had charge of the program was: Ed L. Johnston, Arthur Magill and George Lehner.

Ed L. Johnston acted as master of ceremonies. He was ably assisted by Superintendent George C. O'Connell and Chip Ames.

Max Wiley of the Rochester Athletic Club has written a superintendent. Gross offering to meet Harry Platt in a wrestling match. Wiley is the champion in three class—of wrestling. Platt has expressed a willingness to meet Wiley, but does not think that he can make the required weight. Among the other men who are talked of as candidates to meet Wiley are Jack Williamson and Harry Golder.

Base Ball

Two defeats at the hands of the Sacramento team have placed the Dudes in a position of a poor third in the Baseball League.

In the first game with Sacramento the Dudes made a fair showing. The game interested the most highly contested of the season. The small score, 4 to 3, was due to the excellent fielding done by both teams. A number of long drives added interest to the game.

In the second game with Sacramento the Dudes were defeated on account of the errorless playing and excellent fielding of the Senators.

Moskman did good work in the box, holding the hard-hitting Senators down to a few hits.

Beville is pitching a good, strong game. The Dudes made six base hits and one error in each game with Sacramento.

Stockton took two out of the three games with San Francisco by scores of 2 to 0, 4 to 3 and 3 to 2. These games left the percentage of the Wasps the same.

Sacramento is now so far in the lead that it looks like a sure thing that the pennant will go to that city. A few reversals, however, would make a material change in the standing of the teams at present are as follows: Sacramento, 65; Stockton, 51; Oakland, 42; San Francisco, 32.

The Dudes should take a brace up. A few victories games would make things look a great deal brighter for them.

The Dudes and the Wasps meet today at Recreation Park.

Hutchinson continues to play an excellent game.

In the first game with Sacramento a couple of clever double plays were executed by Frankos, Hutchinson, Hammond and Schmeer.

Beville hit a clever three-bagger in the second game with Sacramento.

The Dudes have been unfortunate in their recent games. A number of little incidents have happened at critical times which lost them their games. Their fielding is excellent. Their batting could stand some improvement.

Beville should be used more, as he is in excellent form. In a recent game at Stockton the Slough City team scored only one hit from him in five innings.

Schmeer is getting back to his old form. In the last few games he has been hitting well. Drennen is improving in his hitting. His fielding has been fine all season.

West Oakland Club

Although the weather was warm last week, things at the club were quite lively and the classes in boxing and wrestling were well patronized.

The matchmakers of the club have secured some very good men for the next boxing night, which will be held about the middle of June.

Last Sunday the vellemen will take a club run to Niles and return, stopping on the way to get some cherries in the orchard of a friend of Mr. Duchrau.

The boats taking them over were the Yawla Yawla and Katie and the sloops Denny and Dan.

Next Sunday the vellemen will take a club run to Niles and return, stopping on the way to get some cherries in the orchard of a friend of Mr. Duchrau.

CROWN PRINCE NOW A SOLDIER.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

POSDAM, May 30.—The Crown Prince Frederick William joined the First Regiment of Foot Guards in Potsdam today. The event was made the occasion of a considerable ceremony. Emperor William addressed the Crown Prince and the commanders of the regiments in the presence of the members of the royal families, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Count von Seelow, a number of Ambassadors, and the military attachés. After the Crown Prince, drawing his sword, formally joined the second company of the regiment. The Emperor witnessed the ceremony from the windows of the castle. A parade and lunch then followed.

THEO. GIER'S SAUTERNE

Is produced from vines that were imported from the Sauterne District of France in 1884. No foreign white wine can compare with it, being mellow, rich in flavor and lacking the acidity so common in most dry wines. No matter how long in bottle it is absolutely clear. It is remarkably cheap for its type of wine.

WEDNESDAY.....MAY 30, 1900.

Oakland's millmen are demanding that their hours of labor be reduced to eight a day. It is to be hoped that some will make a job and say that there are some "downsides" among them.

Dewey's campaign balloon has evidently collapsed, for he is said to concede Bryan's nomination. It is plain enough by this time that the Republican bee was in Mrs. Dewey's bonnet instead of the Admiral's and that he personally only went into the fight in a half-hearted manner—not the better half at least.

Los Angeles has sent a delegation to the Woman's Parliament at Milwaukee with the object of securing the gathering next year. If their advocates want to make a strong point they should include to the fact that the place they represent is the City of Angels and therefore singularly appropriate for such a meeting.

President Kruger is said to be all prepared for flight to Holland as soon as the British approach Pretoria. The Dutch are said to have taken Holland but the question is will they take Kruger, for his presence in their midst would probably lead to international complications. By the way, why wouldn't it be a good idea to start a colony somewhere for exiles. Kruger, Steyn and Lillovaland together with the Orlean family of France would form a nucleus and the Emperor of China and a few others would probably be along very soon. Here is an opportunity for Alameda to do some well advertising by inviting them all over.

MEMORIAL DAY.
There is an added significance each year to the observance of Memorial Day, for not only are the ranks of the Grand Army thinning fast, but the heroes of the Spanish-American war have been added to the silent battalions who have answered the roll-call in eternity. "Greater love than this no man hath—that he lay down his life for his friend," says Holy Writ, and the text appeals with singular force to us as we consider all that today means. What can be more noble than for a young man to lay aside his comforts and his business hopes and ambitions to answer the bugle-call that summons stout arms and willing hearts to rally to the defense of the Stars and Stripes? We who remain at home while these heroes go forth to fight our battles can well afford, when each year the day comes around that has been set apart in their honor, to show that we hold their memory dear.

There has been too much of a disposition of late, though, to regard the festival as a mere holiday, and there is a large element that simply looks forward to it as an occasion when there is to be a cessation from labor. The amusement caterers, seeing their opportunity, invariably announce a number of special attractions for the day, the result being that with many it simply becomes a matter of merry-making and nothing more. This is not right—it is not the true spirit, and in a measure is unjust and un-American. While there is no desire to urge the setting apart of the whole day for mourning and unwrapping it in absolute gloom, as it were, there should at least be some part of it devoted to the observances for which it was dedicated. Out of the sixteen hours of sunshine it is not asking too much to devote one hour to a trip to the cemetery where the dead soldiers lie sleeping or to some church or public place where commemorative services are being held, while some indication of sorrow should be given by appropriate decorations either at home or some other place where the opportunity occurs. The pleasures of the remainder of the holiday will prove more enjoyable if this is done, for although we may have no immediate relative or friend numbered among the soldier dead, the fact should not be forgotten that those who were the blue embers, the crash of battle were the champions of each and every citizen in the land and offered up their lives to save the republic that we enjoy today.

THE "INTERVENTION" TALK.
Whatever regret one may feel for the defeat of the Boers, there is some humor in the dispatches that announce Europe's willingness to "intervene" if America will take the lead. To a looker on in Vienna interference of this character appears to be a trifle late. It is like saying "Don't" to a father after he has finished administering a spanking to his small boy. Lives have been lost on both sides and more will fall before the end of it all, but there has never been any question of what that end would be. The Boers, unaided, never could hope to cope with the British Empire, and the European nations, which would not assist the republican farmers of the Transvaal at the beginning, when they might have been saved, are not likely to put out a hand for the defeated and fleeing, disheartened and disorganized Afrikaners at this late day.

Nor does anyone doubt that England would repeat the advancement of any suggestion from her sister powers as to how she shall deal with the Boers. When Russia had the Turk cornered a concert of nations saved the Sick Man of Europe from being kicked across the Tiber, but Russia, rich as her ruler is, is a debtor nation, whereas almost all the world owes money to Great Britain's bankers. That makes an enormous difference, especially when the nations that interfered were also heavy creditors of Turkey. The Transvaal, now, owes nothing to speak of. No one's purse will be the leaser for Oom Paul's defeat. No nation has anything at stake and no one cares. It is all utterly selfish, of course, but no sentiment is wasted in the dealings of nations with each other. So the Boers are doomed, and European correspondents writing belated speculations on possible interventions might as well economize in ink. They are wasting it now.

The American abroad will be a familiar figure in Europe this year, for 3,000 passports have been issued at our State Department during the present month alone. At first glance the impression might prevail that the enormous amount of money they will spend over there will hurt our finances, but reflection shows that as these tourists are all of the wealthy class, the money will come back to us in payment for the fruits and other things that we are constantly sending to the old world. In this way the present drain will ultimately do us good for it will fill the pockets of the people over there with money with which to make purchases from us.

Those Boer delegates are doubtless congratulating themselves nowadays that they came to America for they are out of range of the British guns that will soon be trained on Pretoria.

WOODRUFF AND HIS WASTECOAAT.
When Lieut.-Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff was traveling in the West and nursing his wounds for vice-president, the journey of Detroit and Chicago through to see Mr. Woodruff to observe the very latest in gorgeous silks and colors. That Mr. Woodruff did wear a single fancy waistcoat, wherefore there was a suspicion that he wasn't Woodruff at all. As a matter of fact, said Mr. Woodruff, if I haven't worn a fancy waistcoat for five years, unless a white one is called fancy. I never was addicted to the wild and fearsome kind of waistcoat anyway.
"The waistcoat reputation came to me in a curious way. Seven or eight years ago I went to visit a friend in the country, and when I was asked to make a speech I was in a quandary. The ladies asked to lend me one. I was very shy and far too big for me. They pinned it on and tied it down and did all manner of things.
"While I was speaking the pins gave way and that waistcoat ballooned out like a sail thrown to the wind. There they stood, looking at me, and I was pulled out of the flaring waistcoat to prove that it didn't belong to me.
"From that time until this the fancy waistcoat reputation has clung to me, and that is the only excuse for it. I suppose it will stick to me until I die."—New York World.

LETTER DELIVERY IN LONDON.
The traveler is interested in getting his letters promptly. At his London hotel the letter delivery is a daily. He may drop a card in the post box at 8 o'clock in the morning, get an answer at noon, and mail a reply which will get to his friends before evening. Within the last three years, whenever the postoffice bill has come up in the House of Representatives, there has been discussion as to the practicability of the postoffice dispatch. One might as well discuss the practicability of the telephone. They would be the same thing. A schedule of a branch, or three miles to the central postoffice to get his money. The postman would be the order of the day. With him. You receipt for it, and that is the end of it.—Forum.

COAL

Does not warm except through combustion. Food does not nourish except through digestion. You may as well hug a coal pile to get warm as expect to get nourishment out of food which you cannot digest. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the body to assimilate food and so put on sound flesh and develop strong muscle.
"The praise I would like to give you 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Ambrose, Esq., of 120 1/2 Millin Street, Huntington, Pa. "I was taken down with what our physicians said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote you and you sent me a question blank to fill out and I did so and you then advised me to use Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped—being as I think, cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper or 31 stamps for cloth binding, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FRUIT MEN ARE FIGHTING FOR PRICES.

Combine Is Giving the Growers a Hard Rally.

Mass Meeting to be Held at San Leandro Next Saturday.

SAN LEANDRO, May 30.—Next Saturday evening the Alameda Bay District Fruitgrowers' Association will hold a meeting in U. P. E. C. Hall, at which action will be taken to compel the canners to pay a fair price for apricots.

The members of the Association anticipate no trouble in controlling the price of apricots, as the fruit can be dried to good advantage if the price for green fruit falls too low.

Although the organization of a fruitgrowers' association served to thoroughly alarm the canners and caused a decided raise in the price of cherries, as soon as the combine found that the growers had decided not to act together but to let each individual market his own crop, it again reduced the price.

The combine is now offering but 25 cents a pound for white and black cherries.

The Cause of Corns

Most people expect to cure a corn with superficial remedies. Sometimes they will yield, but the effect is only temporary. When you want to cure a Corn, the thing to do is to get at the seat of the trouble, take away the pain by doctoring the affected parts. OUR CORN ERADICATOR will go to the seat of the trouble and cure your Corns (either hard or soft) quicker than anything you ever used. JEFFRIES' BROTHER WINS.

Jack Jeffries, the champion's brother, made his debut as a professional last night in a preliminary to the McCoy-Ryan bout.

Jeffries' opponent was one Jack Rauschott, described in the dispatches as a veteran.

His reputation is probably bounded by the Chicago stock yards, as nobody out this way ever heard of him before.

Jeffries was nervous at the start, although he outwitted his opponent by twenty pounds. Gaining confidence as he proceeded, he made the pace and had all the better of it.

At the end of the round Jeffries forced matters and after punishing his man severely sent him down and out with a right hook to the jaw.

Stay of Execution.

Judge Hall has granted a stay of execution for ten days in the case in which George Ingram was given judgment.
